Raymond's Story

Raymond Red Bird is a Lakota Sioux Indian who grew up on the Rosebud Reservation in South Dakota. He struggled with alcoholism and drug addiction for many years, but eventually found his way to recovery. In 2008, Raymond decided to walk the Camino de Santiago, a 500-mile pilgrimage across Spain. He had never walked long distances before, but he was determined to complete the journey.

Raymond's journey was not easy. He faced physical challenges, emotional challenges, and spiritual challenges. But through it all, he never gave up. He learned to forgive himself and others, he learned to be compassionate towards himself and others, and he learned to persevere in the face of adversity.

The Camino de Santiago

The Camino de Santiago is a network of ancient pilgrimage routes that lead to the tomb of Saint James the Great in Santiago de Compostela, Spain. The Camino has been walked by pilgrims for over 1,000 years, and it is estimated that over 200,000 people walk the Camino each year.

The Camino is a challenging journey, both physically and emotionally. But it is also a rewarding journey. Pilgrims who walk the Camino often report feeling a sense of peace, clarity, and purpose. They learn about themselves, they learn about the world, and they learn about God.
